NARRATIVE:

Gregory Gardner is a sex offender and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 32. His convictions include annoy and molest children, multiple burglaries, vehicle theft, theft by deception, several petty thefts, possession of narcotic controlled substances, disorderly conduct and obstruction of an officer. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 6 year term for burglary. Gardner was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 04, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in October 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Gardner qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substances is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, sex offender status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
